The following Resolution No. 1-52-5, dated the 7th September 1905, of the Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industry, is republished for general information :—

EMIGRATION.

Clause (m) of Section 3 of the Australian Immigration Restriction Act, 1901, exempts from the category of "prohibited immigrants" a wife accompanying her husband, if he is not a prohibited immigrant, and all children apparently under the age of eighteen years accompanying their father or mother, if the father or mother is not a prohibited immigrant; but it is provided that these exemptions shall not apply if suspended by proclamation. The Government of India have now been informed that the Government of the Commonwealth have, by a proclamation issued on the 28th March 1903, suspended the operation of the clause. The admission into the Commonwealth of the wives and children of Indians who have acquired an Australian domicile, is therefore, under the operation of this proclamation, prohibited unless these persons do not themselves fall within the category of "prohibited immigrants."

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the above Resolution be forwarded to all Local Governments and Administrations, and to the Home and Foreign Departments, for information.

Ordered, also, that a copy be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India for general information.
